

SASKATCHEWAN HOME ECONOMICS TEACHERS' ASSOCIATION BURSARY

Value: $500

Number: One

Donor:

The Saskatchewan Home Economics Teachers Association of the Saskatchewan Teachers' Federation

Eligibility:

The SHETA Award is open to individuals pursuing further education in the area of Home Economics. Applicants must be considered a full or part-time student having completed their final year of study in their graduate studies or post-degree certificate courses related to the field of Home Economics. Applicants must also be Saskatchewan residents and current members of SHETA. Selection will be based on involvement in the area of Home Economics.

To apply, applicants must submit the following:

- 1) Proof of enrollment
- 2) A letter stating their current experience and work in the area of Home Economics in Saskatchewan, including a summary detailing what their final graduate project or post-degree certificate courses contained, and how it relates to the area of Home Economics.

Application Deadline: October 1

Applications are emailed to: shetapresident@gmail.com

The SHETA Bursary will be acknowledged at the SHETA Conference.